

HISTORY OF THE LEAGUE

Peter Houseman played for Chelsea in their "Golden Years" of the late '60's and early '70's. He moved to Oakley in 1967 and soon became involved in coaching local boys in the art of football. Obviously, as Peter was a 'star', word soon got around and Peter found his group getting larger and larger. From this he thought that these players should be formed into teams and set about encouraging other people to join in. Soon after, Peter and other members of the community formed The Basingstoke and District Boys Sunday League.

They played their first league games on 9th February 1969 with six teams making up the league. The original six were Oakley, South Ham, Wellington, Buckskin, Rotherwick and Worting. Today the league has grown to over 50 clubs and well over 200 teams ranging from under 7 to under 16. Whilst it may not be the largest of leagues, it has always tried to remain as Peter intended in that it gives boys and girls a chance to play football in an organised fashion.

In the early days Peter was aided by his wife Sally and the two of them would often be seen going to football matches with a car full of lads. Peter was elected Secretary of the League but later stepped down due to FA rules, and was inaugurated as the first league President. Sally volunteered to take up the post and served as Secretary for 3 seasons. She had to retire owing to the fact that their own family had arrived and demanded more of her time, but she kept in touch as Vice President.

In March 1977 they were both tragically killed along with friends in a motor accident. They left behind 3 young children, many friends, and the legacy of this League. In memorial to Peter, his name was added to the League in 1977, and the playing fields at Oakley were also dedicated to him.

CHILD WELFARE IN FOOTBALL

Our focus is on safeguarding the welfare of all young people who participate in the Peter Houseman Youth League, and protecting them from physical, sexual, or emotional harm, and from neglect or bullying.

Serious causes for concern are fortunately comparatively rare, and should be reported to the Hampshire County F.A. for further investigation. There is however equal concern for incidents which affect the conditions under which youth football is played, particularly those which are considered poor practice. These range from conflict between opposing teams' parents, spectator incursion onto the pitch, and general threatening behaviour towards players, officials, and supporters.

Such incidents have become too common, and every club needs to work towards their elimination, to ensure that the children in their charge are provided with a safe environment in which to play. Clubs are held responsible for the behaviour of their managers, coaching staff, players, parents, and spectators (and may incur considerable fines for neglect of this duty), and are expected to engender responsible behaviour by way of education and example.

A mandatory requirement under F.A. rules is the appointment of an officer (Child Welfare Officer) by each club, and these persons have an important role in the implementation of the spirit of child welfare. They are trained to a high standard, and act as a first point of contact for anyone having concern in such matters. Names and contact details of club CWOs are now published in this handbook

For help or further details, please contact PHYL Child Welfare Officer,

F.A. RESPECT PROGRAMME

Following from the Child Welfare in Football detailed above, the Peter Houseman Youth League, and all of our member clubs, are committed to the F.A. RESPECT programme, which has been developed to eliminate poor practice at all levels within our sport of football.

We expect ALL participants of the League to vigorously support the programme, and trust, in turn, that ALL will benefit by its adoption.

As a league this year we require all teams at all age groups to provide a Respect Steward who will be required to wear a respect hi-viz jacket Please see details on the PHYL web site on their role.

We have also introduced a change to the respect line on the parents' side of the pitch, for forms of the game where assistant referees are used.

The line will run along only half way along the pitch. This will be the opposite end to the assistant referee.

APPENDIX 2 - GUIDE TO REFEREE MARKING

The following questions focus on the key areas of a referee's performance. They are intended as an "aide memoire", are not necessarily comprehensive and need not be answered individually. It is, however, worth considering them before committing yourself to a mark for the referee. Always try to be objective when marking. Judge the performance over the whole game. Don't be too influenced by one particular incident. Don't mark the referee down unfairly because your team was unlucky and lost the game or some disciplinary action was taken against your players.

CONTROL AND DECISION MAKING

- How well did the referee control the game?
- Were the players' actions recognised correctly?
- Were the Laws applied correctly?
- Were all incidents dealt with efficiently/effectively?
- Were all the appropriate sanctions applied correctly?
- Was the referee always within reasonable distance of incidents?
- Was the referee well positioned to make critical decisions, especially in and around the penalty area?
- Did the referee understand the players' positional intentions and keep out of the way accordingly?
- Did the referee demonstrate alertness and concentration throughout the game?
- Did the referee apply the use of the advantage to suit the mood and temperature of the game?
- Was the referee aware of the players' attitude to advantage?
- Did the referee use the assistants effectively?
- Did the officials work as a team, and did the referee lead and manage them to the benefit of the game?

COMMUNICATION AND PLAYER MANAGEMENT

- How well did the referee communicate with the players during the game?
- Did the referee's level of involvement/profile suit this particular game?
- Did the referee understand the players' problems on the day – e.g. difficult ground/weather conditions?
- Did the referee respond to the changing pattern of play/mood of players?
- Did the referee demonstrate empathy for the game, allowing it to develop in accordance with the tempo of the game?
- Was the referee pro-active in controlling of the game?
- Was the referee's authority asserted firmly without being officious?
- Was the referee confident and quick thinking?
- Did the referee appear unflustered and unhurried when making critical decisions?
- Did the referee permit undue questioning of decisions?
- Did the referee deal effectively with players crowding around after decisions/incidents?

.Did the pace of the game, the crowd or player pressure affect the ref.
